Every Minute To Be Busy On Holiday

Races, Ballgames, Polo And Dances Have Been Planned To Keep The Crowds Busy On Fourth Of July

The sports program for the double header holiday which Maui is to hold this year, has now been completed by the Maui County Fair & Racing Association, and there will be sports to suit the most critical. On Friday, July 4th, at 10 a. m., the racing will start, seven races to be run on that day. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon there will be a baseball game between the Maui team and the All-Chinese baseball team from Honolulu, which is coming especially for a series of games. At 4 o'clock the same day there will be a polo game at the polo field, and Friday night there will be a big dance held at the armory in Wailuku.

Racing will start at 1 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, six races to be run that day. A ball game between the Chinese team and Maui team at 4 o'clock and another dance in the evening.

The holiday will run over into Sunday, for the third of the ball game series will be played Sunday afternoon, a double header being staged for that day.

Linton Becomes A Tennis Star

Makes Good Promise Shown Early In Season—Maui Players Will Have To Look Up

Jack Linton, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Linton of Wailuku, who gave promise early in the season of becoming a bright and shining tennis star has made good that promise. He is now considered the tennis champion of the Honolulu Military Academy and is being looked upon as the likely winner of the tennis tournament which is now in full swing on the Honolulu Military Academy Courts. Two matches are yet to be played before the semi-finals are staged and this will be finished this week.

Thinks All-Stars Stand Good Chance

Eddie Rodriguez, manager and captain of the Maui All-Stars, one of the strongest baseball nines on the Valley Isle, went to Honolulu this week, to look over the baseball material and incidentally watch the Chinese twirlers play a few games. He opined when interviewed that the Chinese bunch won't have a walkover with the All-Stars of Wailuku and is confident that in the series to be pulled off during the Fourth of July celebration the All-Stars stand as good a chance of walking away with the bacon as the Mandarins. Manager Rodriguez informed the Honolulu ball fans that Maui was baseball crazy and is ready to take on all comers.

WAISTLINE TABU IN TEXAS

EL PASO, Tex., May 15—Walter Williams has declared war on the waistline. He has been an athletic instructor at the army camps and, not being chosen for service in service in France, he has brought the war home to the business men of the city who are getting perfect 46 figures in the region of the equator. Each morning at seven o'clock his class reports for duty and Williams puts them through an hour of fat reducing exercises which end with a swim and a shower.

Dealing Direct

Mrs. Hetty Green hated a snob in any form. She owned a farm in Vermont, and at times spent a few weeks there. In one of her lots was a somewhat vicious cow that had exhibited a determination to chase visitors. One day a visiting Englishman ventured to cross the lot. The cow, true to form, immediately gave chase. In an angry frame of mind, the visitor presented himself to Mrs. Green, saying: "Madam, your cow has chased me across the lot." Mrs. Green looked him over but made no comment. "Madam," he insisted, "do you know who I am? I'm the Honorable Vivian Westleigh, of London." Mrs. Green pursed her lips and said: "Go tell that to the cow."

Claim Ring Champs Got Start On Coast

Willard And Dempsey Unknown Until Boosted By Ring Fans In San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12—(By Associated Press)—In no city in the country are Jess Willard, the heavyweight champion boxer, and challenger Jack Dempsey better known among the followers of the ring than in this city. Both men practically made their start here—that is their serious ring careers, although both men had fought practically as unknowns before coming here. For this reason an unusual amount of interest is being taken here in the championship contest which is slated to be staged at Toledo on Independence Day.

Willard's fight against "Gunboat" Smith in which Willard lost the decision, was the first real opportunity followers of the ring here had of estimating the worth of Willard. It is recalled that Willard did not make much of a reputation for himself as a fighter but his great bulk was the wonder of the day. It frequently was commented on at the time that if Willard ever gained the championship it would be more through his enormous size than for any particular ability he had as a fighter.

Willard engaged in several minor bouts here after his meeting with Smith but he failed to convince the sporting fraternity. He made a poor showing against Charlie Miller in a four round bout. Miller, who is a motorman, had little to recommend him aside from his size and ruggedness but he succeeded in making Willard practically run away from him during the twelve minutes of boxing. This was called a draw by the referee.

Dempsey, on the other hand, made a decided hit from the start and it was predicted that he was a fighter who must be taken into consideration sooner or later. Under the circumstances it is not difficult to account for the strong Dempsey sentiment which exists here among ring followers, the majority of whom, as far as can be determined, believe Dempsey will be returned the victor after his meeting with the present champion. Those who favor Willard continue to point to his great bulk rather than to his fighting ability which latter however, they say undoubtedly has improved through experience since he fought here.

POOR WILL PROFIT FROM PLEASURE

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY OF OCCUPATION, April 29—(By Associated Press)—American soldiers fond of wild game hunting are looking forward to July 1 when the season for duck, snipe, plover, wild swans, cranes and other swamp and bog game fowl begins. It was decided recently by Third army officers that the soldiers of the Army of Occupation should abide by the German regulations regarding wild game. The open season for birds of the swamp will be the first opportunity of the summer for the Americans to try their hand at this kind of shooting.

But the American soldier will not be allowed to have the pleasure of eating the game even after he has had victory in the field. To prevent the soldiers from depleting the food supply of the country all meat obtained as a result of hunting by any army personnel will be turned over to the poor people of the locality in which the game was killed.
